

We are on the state and national no call list and we strongly oppose having it weakened by allowing people we have done business with to pester us more than once.

We are quite capable of deciding what we want to do about our business without having our privacy invaded and we do NO business of any kind over the phone.

Thank you for considering our opinion.

Bob and Patti Schuknecht